

ECAEYC is dedicated to creating a quality system for early childhood education through collaboration and partnerships, leadership, and professional development.

We will advocate for the rights and needs of children, families, and early childhood professionals.

We will raise public awareness of the importance of young children and increase the respect and acknowledgement of early childhood professionals.

membership

Student and Regular members

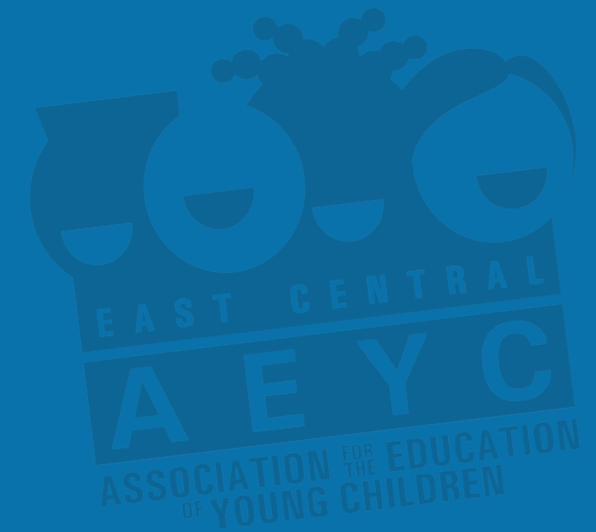

- six issues of Young Children
- reduced fees at conferences
- a vote in NAEYC elections
- reduced rates for Early Childhood Research Quarterly
- access to the members only section of the NAEYC website
- insurance and credit card options

details

Comprehensive members

- six issues of Young Children
- reduced fees at conferences
- a vote in NAEYC elections
- reduced rates for Early Childhood Research Quarterly
- access to the members only section of the NAEYC website
- insurance and credit card options
- five new books per year

- Join online
www.naeyc.org
- Call now
1.800.424.2460
- Fill out attached form and send in join today

name _____

address _____

city _____ state _____ zip _____

e-mail _____

phone _____

new member

renewal

ID# _____

affiliate name _____

membership level:

comprehensive regular student payment

amount enclosed _____

check/money order

Visa

Mastercard

card # _____

card exp. date _____

signature _____

send form to:

NAEYC

PO Box 97156

Washington, DC 20090-7156

E education that is individualized and developmentally appropriate

C care for and to implement quality service for children

A advocate for the needs, rights, and well-being for all children

E encourage growth and development of early childhood professionals

Y young children are the threads that weave us together

C collaborate with organizations that work with and for young children

Gail Bultman

South Dakota State University

Box 2218

Brookings, SD 57007

1.605.688.5989

East Central Association for the Education of Young Children

East Central Association for the Education of Young Children